- Idaho's pristine scenery and the Salmon River are the setting for ROW Adventures' Family Magic rafting trip with hikes, swimming, campfire cookouts and a River Jester. rowadventures.com
- Gaze skyward (with protective glasses) on August 21, when the first total solar eclipse visible from North America in 45 years cuts a diagonal path from Oregon to Missouri to South Carolina, with viewing opportunities in public parks. eclipse2017.nasa.gov
- The 35-mile Fruit Loop, which meanders through Oregon's stunning Hood River Valley, has dozens of leg-stretching opportunities, including roadside stands and u-pick farms. Stop at the Apple Valley Country Store for jam and check out the fuzzy adorableness at Cascade Alpacas of Oregon. hoodriver.org
- Pedal along the 20-mile Swamp Rabbit Trail, which runs from Greenville, SC, to the town of Travelers Rest. Take in a ball game at Fluor Field, a replica of Fenway Park and home to the Greenville Drive. visitgreenville.com

Collecting seashells never loses its charm, especially on Sanibel and Captiva, two islands just off the west coast of Florida that boast 250 different kinds on 15 miles of sugary sand beaches. sanibel-captiva.org

Movie night gets an eerie twist at Hollywood Forever Cemetery in Los Angeles, where classic films are projected on a mausoleum wall every Saturday. Permanent residents include Rudolph Valentino. cinespia.org
