

WHERE TO SHOP NOW Greenville, SC

Take a break from this month's Euphoria food festival (September 26-29) to get a taste of the city's stylish offerings

No. 1

MONKEE'S OF WEST END

Get game-day ready with colorful Shoshanna dresses ($395), Frye boots, and other on-trend accessories from labels such as Tory Burch ($250), Tom Ford, and Alexis Bittar at this boutique specializing in head-to-toe style. 103 Augusta Street; monkeesofthewestend.com

No. 2

RUSH WILSON LIMITED

Though steeped in tradition, family-owned Rush Wilson keeps up with the times to outfit the modern Southern gentleman. Shop from its collection of custom suits, silk pocket squares ($50), and basics from brands such as Southern Tide and Peter Millar. 23 West North Street; rushwilson.com

No. 3

DARK CORNER DISTILLERY

Visit this micro-distillery and retail shop for a taste of Blue Ridge Mountain culture right on Main Street. The rustic-meets-modern establishment makes the winningest moonshine in America (13 awards since its 2011 debut) and bourbon whiskey ($64.95), and stocks Carolina-made salsas, body scrubs, and flasks. 241 North Main Street; darkcornerdistillery.com

No. 1

No. 3

No. 5

No. 6

No. 6

No. 1

No. 2

No. 4

AUGUSTA TWENTY

Greenville's edgiest boutique carries fashion-forward brands such as Joie, House of Harlow 1960, and Vince, alongside Carolina-made jewelry and bags from Native Rainbow and Marquin Designs. If you can't make it into the shop, browse the e-store to see a killer selection of stylist-approved merch. 20 Augusta Street; augustatwenty.com

No. 5

COCOBELLA BOUTIQUE

Run by a fashionable mom and her equally style-savvy daughters, Cocobella Boutique caters to women of all ages. Shop colorful earrings ($45), playful printed tops by Ivy Jane, and flattering dresses by Uncle Frank. 21c Augusta Street; shopcocobella.com

No. 6

POSTCARD FROM PARIS

Design guru Linda McDougald (she decorated the first Southern Living green showhome at Furman University) curates a lovely selection of furnishings, antiques found on buying trips to Europe, accessories, artwork, and Côté Bastide bath products ($64). 631 South Main Street; postcardfromparis.com

SHOPPING BREAK

The newest location of Asheville's Tupelo Honey Cafe serves up its signature from-scratch soups, Nutty Fried Chicken ($16), and sweet potato pancakes ($6), perfect for breakfast or dinner. tupelohoneycafe.com · Later, unwind with a glass of sangria ($8) made fresh table-side with regionally sourced fruit at SIP, downtown's first rooftop bar. siprooftop.com