

WHAT TO BUY

A Few Southern TLP Picks to Progress Your Palate

Texas Toast

SWIFT SINGLE MALT WHISKEY

"A fine whiskey finished in sherry casks, which brings out hints of vanilla and stronger notes of fruit."

—Matt Dobie, Editorial Assistant swiftdistillery.com

The Big Cheesy

SOBY'S GARLIC CHEDDAR BISCUIT MIX

"I'm all about simplifying a recipe as long as the flavor isn't compromised. Half the effort and twice the taste, what's not to love?"

—Mary Pappas, Social Media Manager shoptable301.com

Smoky Samplin'

EDWARDS VIRGINIA SMOKEHOUSE DRY CURED LAMB

"This prosciutto has an intense flavor—wonderful if you love lamb. And it's super salty, so pop a bottle of bubbly as you snack."

—Maggie White, Editor in Chief edwardsvaham.com

Sugar Rush

SHOTWELL CANDY CO. CARAMELS

"They hit you with the trifecta of confectionary flavor: coffee, caramel, and salt. The sweet and salty combination makes them deliciously addictive."

—Christina Oxford, Recipe Developer shotwellcandy.com

Notes of Grass

COASTAL TOUCH WINE STOPPER

"The touch of woven sweetgrass in these Lowcountry-made bottle stoppers makes me envision a nice glass of rosé by the beach."

—Hayley Phillips, Assistant Editor coastaltouch.com

where to shop

MERCANTILE AND MASH Charleston, SC

Marrying the restoration of an iconic downtown building (the Cigar Factory) with the offering of high-quality food and drink, there's no doubt that the Holy City will eat up this new food hall, set to open this month. Hit Mercantile for edibles and Southern-made gifts, then enjoy Mash's more spirited side.
