Atlanta Food Truck Park

A-Town has a permanent gathering place for the city's growing number of food trucks. You'll find up to 15 trucks including Sweet Auburn BBQ, Nana G's Chik-n-Waffles, The Pickle, Mighty Meatballs, Rolling Reuben's, and Honeysuckle Gelato; allresco seating; bocce ball and horseshoes; weekly live music; and a weekend farmers' market at this 3-acre community-centered site that embraces the creative and entrepreneurial spirit of local businesses. Road Trip = Boiled Peanuts

We enjoy this classic Southern snack year-round, but there's nothing better than picking up a brown paper bag full of boiled peanuts at the gas station and passing them back and forth in the car as you head down the highway.

Greenville Gets EARTH MARKET

Greenville, South Carolina, is home to the first Earth Market in the United States. There are only 20 Earth Markets in the world, so this is quite an honor for this food-centric Southern city. The community-run Earth Markets follow the Slow Food philosophy of Good, Clean and Fair, and they preserve the local food culture. Markets are scheduled for June 21, July 19, August 16, and September 20. (741 Rutherford Rd., earthmarkets.net)
