SO ANCIENT, SO MODERN

The spirit of Blanc de Chine can be expressed in each carefully constructed piece, which captures its namesake's aesthetics with pure lines and a serene palette.

Blanc de Chine was the first Chinese luxury brand to make a serious effort in translating the cultural values of Zen Buddhism, Daoism, and Confucianism into haute couture collections that serve a contemporary lifestyle.

Founded on principles of Zen philosophy, Blanc de Chine has translated Chinese designs to combine what is traditional and timeless with modern lifestyle, so the world is able to get a glimpse of Chinese culture in its truest form, in all its splendor and potentials.

By bringing together east and west, modern and traditional, Blanc de Chine represents a new global aesthetic with simple lines and quiet elegance. Blanc de Chine features men's and women's ready-to-wear, jewelry and accessories, and a home collection.
